

Frequently Asked Questions

Welcome to AIA Agents Protector!

1. Why do I need to buy AIA Agents Protector?

You owe a duty of care to your clients. They may bring a claim against you for your actual or alleged breach of duty, negligent act, error, omission, misleading statement which occurs when you are performing your professional services.

In this rapid changing business landscape, it is also essential to safeguard against sensitive data breaches when handling your clients' data.

Our AIA Agents Protector provides a unique and comprehensive coverage which enables you to conduct your business without the burden of costly individual litigation and potential liability.

About the Policy:

2. What is the core coverage of AIA Agents Protector ?

AIA Agents Protector is composed of two sections:
Section A - Professional Indemnity
Section B – CyberEdge

3. What is being covered in Section A - Professional Indemnity of AIA Agents Protector?

It covers the sale, distribution and promotion of insurance products offered by AIG Insurance Hong Kong Limited, Zurich Insurance Hong Kong, AIA International Limited or AIA Company Limited (coverage is now extended to products that come with the AIA Vitality Program), and Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme products offered by AIA International Limited (or any company in the AIA Group).

4. What is the Policy Period of AIA Agents Protector?

The Policy Effective Date is October 1, 2021 and Policy Expiring Date is May 31, 2022. This is an eight-month policy because there will be a change in the policy inception date for next year's renewal.

If a financial planner enrolls during the Policy Period, the cover will be effective from a different date (please refer to Question 12).

5. What is the policy limit of AIA Agents Protector?

	Financial Planner	Agency Leader
Section A – Professional Indemnity:	HK$3,000,000 any one Claim and in aggregate	HK$15,000,000 any one Claim and in aggregate
Section B – CyberEdge:	HK$3,000,000 any one Loss and in aggregate	HK$4,500,000 any one Loss and in aggregate

(For Internship Financial Planner, please refer to Question 27)

6. What is the self retention for AIA Agents Protector?

For Section A – Professional Indemnity, Self retention is HK$10,000 per claimant, for both AIA Financial Planners, AIA Agency Leaders and AIA Intern.

For Section B – CyberEdge, Self retention is HK$10,000 each and every claim, for both AIA Financial Planners, AIA Agency Leaders and AIA Intern.

7. Why do I need CyberEdge and what does it cover?

The development of information technology and digitalization of data have provided us with much greater convenience in our course of business. However, the new mode of conducting business also exposes us to increased cyber liability. As an insurance financial planner, you have to handle a huge volume of personal and corporate data on daily basis, whether it can be clients' ID numbers, credit card information, medical records, customer lists, or corresponding profiles of employees. When the data is misused, stolen, improperly collected or stored with inadequate security, you may be subject to inquiries from regulatory body, and become liable to relevant legal liability.

CyberEdge is a cutting edge insurance coverage that provides comprehensive solutions in response to the increasing exposure to cyber liability. Its coverage includes:

- Personal Data Liability - Breach of personal information/Data Protection.
- Corporate Data Liability - Breach of corporate information.
- Data Security Liability – Breach of data security due to malicious intrusion, unauthorized access to the computer system, theft of access code or physical hardware, etc. Damages resulting from breach of duty such as contamination by malicious code of data, disclosure or leakage of data, destruction or damage of data stored.
- Defence Costs – Coverage for defence costs incurred to defend any civil, criminal or regulatory proceedings
- Data Administrative Investigation - Coverage for costs and expenses incurred for legal advice and representation in connection with a formal investigation by a data protection authority or other regulator.
- Data Administrative Fines – Coverage for insurable fines and penalties imposed by a data protection authority or other regulator.
- Repair of Individual's Reputation – Reimbursement of costs incurred in relation to mitigate reputational damage.
- Notification & Monitoring – Coverage of costs and expenses incurred for the legally required disclosure to Data Subjects and costs and expense associated with identity theft education and credit file or identity monitoring arising from a Breach of Personal Information or Breach of Data Security.

17. Shall I inform AIG if I retire or leave AIA? Will the policy become invalid immediately?

No, you do not have to report to AIG.

If you have retired or left AIA, you are still held liable for your actions while you were an AIA Financial Planner or AIA Agency Leader. Your policy remains valid when you leave AIA, and shall provide you continuous coverage for another 12 months immediately following the date of retirement or leave under the extension “Run-Off Coverage for Retired Insured”.

However, the “Run-Off Coverage for Retired Insured” is only applicable to ex-financial planners/ ex-agency leaders who leave AIA for any reason other than disqualification, dismissal from employment or office, for breach of contract or for breach of their agency agreement.

Claims:

18. Shall I notify AIG if I receive a written or verbal complaint from my client?

- (i) If there is a written complaint against you, or
- (ii) If there is a civil or administrative proceeding brought against you, or
- (iii) If there is an investigation conducted by authority or regulatory in respect of alleged wrongful act committed by you, you should report the case to AIG as soon as practicable and during policy period. If you are aware of any verbal complaint, you are also suggested to report it to AIG as soon as practicable and during the policy period.

19. AIA provides a complaint log to AIG on a monthly basis containing complaint cases received by AIA. Do I need to report complaint cases to AIG by ourselves again?

It is suggested that you should report any potential claim to AIG for our further processing.

20. Referring to Question 18, what do I need to submit to AIG as notification of potential claim if I have already reported the same case to AIA?

You should provide us with a copy of all relevant correspondence and documents that you have exchanged with AIA. AIG may request for further information upon reviewing the initial documents provided.

21. Shall I appoint lawyers to handle the defence?

You can appoint lawyers for your own defense. Please provide us with details of the appointed lawyer including the lawyer's name, position in the firm, CV and hourly rate for our prior approval.

22. Do I need to pay the defence cost first and subsequently seek reimbursement under the policy?

According to the policy terms and condition, you should settle the defence costs and seek reimbursement under the policy at completion of the claim. If individual insured financial planner has any difficulty in making interim payments of defense costs, please contact AIG Claims Department to discuss.

23. If I have a reported case and have incurred defence costs without AIG's written consent, are such defense costs covered under the policy?

There is a condition "Insurer's Consent" in the policy which says all defence costs incurred by you without AIG's prior written consent are not covered under the policy.
